

CEEOL FOR THE SCIENTIFIC COMMUNITY OF INDEPENDENT SCHOLARS AND RESEARCHERS

The Central and Eastern European Online Library (CEEOL) provides access to scholarly and independent journals, eBooks and Grey Literature in humanities and social sciences from and about Central, Eastern and Southeastern Europe.

As of March 2021, CEEOL covered around 2,400 Humanities journal titles from 34 countries, with 723,000+ articles published in more than 30 languages. The CEEOL coverage is growing monthly by 4,000 newly included journal articles.

Significant number of the included journals are represented with complete, extensive archival collection.

Corresponding with the publishing policy of our partnering publishers, significant number of scholarly content is accessible on CEEOL as Open Access.

The CEEOL eBook collection development started in 2016 and offering an ever-growing number of eBooks, as well as current year publications and backlists.

The new CEEOL Grey Literature Collection project includes 6,300 Grey Literature items.

WHY CEEOL?

Browse, search, find and download relevant documents for your research with seamless access to journal articles, eBooks and Grey Literature via convenient registration procedure.

PERSONAL ACCOUNT OPTIONS FOR PAID JOURNAL CONTENT

Pay-per-Download

CEEOL cooperates with PayPal as a general payment gateway for micro-payments.

For more information, including detailed title lists and fees, please contact us at subscriber.support@ceeol.com